

STUDY SURVEYING IN AUSTRALIA

Course & provider fact sheet | 2026–2027

University courses

State	Course	Provider
NSW	Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) – Surveying	UNSW Sydney
NSW	Bachelor of Surveying (Honours)	University of Newcastle
NSW	Diploma in Surveying	University of Newcastle
NSW	Bachelor of Civil Engineering (Honours) / Surveying (Honours)	University of Newcastle
QLD	Bachelor of Surveying Technology	University of Southern Queensland (UniSQ)
QLD	Bachelor of Spatial Science (Honours) – Surveying	University of Southern Queensland (UniSQ)
VIC	Bachelor of Surveying (Honours)	RMIT University
WA	Bachelor of Surveying (Honours)	Curtin University
WA	Bachelor of Mine and Engineering Surveying	Curtin University
TAS	Bachelor of Geospatial Science (related field)	University of Tasmania

TAFE & vocational courses

State	Course	Provider
NSW	Certificate IV in Surveying and Spatial Information Services	TAFE NSW
NSW	Diploma of Surveying	TAFE NSW
VIC	Certificate IV in Surveying and Spatial Information Services	RMIT University
VIC	Diploma of Surveying	RMIT University
VIC	Advanced Diploma of Surveying	RMIT University
WA	Certificate III / IV in Surveying and Spatial Information Services; Diploma / Advanced Diploma of Surveying*	North Metropolitan TAFE
SA	Certificate IV in Surveying and Spatial Information Services	TAFE SA
SA	Diploma of Surveying	TAFE SA
SA	Advanced Diploma of Surveying	TAFE SA

Private / industry training providers

State	Course	Provider
National	Certificate IV in Surveying and Spatial Information Services; Diploma of Surveying*	Industry Training Alliance (ITA)
QLD / national	Certificate IV in Surveying and Spatial Information Services; Diploma and Advanced Diploma of Surveying*	SRDITA

*Course availability, location and 2027 intake details must be confirmed with each provider. Geospatial science is a related discipline, not necessarily a cadastral registration pathway.

For cadastral surveyor registration, confirm degree accreditation and state/territory board requirements before enrolling.